

THE WAY

WROXALL'S PARISH MAGAZINE

SEPTEMBER 2025

Produced and financed by Wroxall Parish Council

Chairmans Report

Welcome to the September edition of the Way. The magazine is funded by the Parish Council and delivered free to each and every household in the village. It's a way to promote local events and to offer support for the various clubs and groups that exist within the village. Advertisers pay a fee to promote their business but much of the content is promoted without charge. The magazine is not compiled by the Parish Council, but volunteers are happy to walk around the village every month and post it. If you have events that you'd like to promote please forward it to our Parish Clerk, Jackie (See back page). The Parish Council has two new councillors. Welcome to Judith Lassam and Karen Stokes. We look forward to their future contributions. We still have one further vacancy and if you'd like to come along to one of the meetings, held each month in Stenbury Hall at 7:30 pm on the second Monday of each month, to see what happens you'd be welcome. It may not be for you, but it's the best way of assessing what's likely to be involved. Our meetings are open to the public and at the end of each meeting there is time for members of the public to ask questions and have an input. The Parish Council is publicly accountable so the meetings are minuted, and a record kept of all financial transactions, donations, etc. Indeed, we have recently distributed several thousand pounds to local organisations and clubs who were successful with their grant applications. Our Parish Clerk, Jackie, is a very busy lady. She is currently filling in application forms for grants to do some further work at the Rec; wild-flowers, and the like. I fully realise and appreciate the amount of unpaid work she does for the village and I would like to publicly acknowledge that.

The Parish Council are attempting, once again, to sort something out in respect of the football club changing rooms in the Rec. The building is an eyesore and no longer fit for purpose, but it is owned by the Isle of Wight Council and it is their responsibility. Whilst we understand that all funds are limited, we feel its continued existence is untenable and we are trying to arrange meetings to address the issue. On a similar note, the Bothey, the building in the cemetery, is earmarked for some improvement works, though we don't know when that may start.

There will be a cleaning team from the Victoria Cross Trust on site at the Diamond Jubilee Victoria Monument, opposite the Central Convenience store during September, when temporary traffic lights will be in operation. The Parish Council have contributed towards the cost of the cleaning team, and Island Roads have kindly agreed to provide the lights without cost – our thanks to Iain Thornton. The reinstating of a Village Fayre was recently discussed on social media. The Parish Council responded by inviting anyone with an interest to attend the recent parish council meeting on the 11th August - where ideas could be heard, but unfortunately, no-one came. However, a local resident (Terri), is hoping to organise a Gardens Visit day next June. Please see articles in this edition for further details.

Enjoy the remainder of the good weather

Kind regards, Steve Clarke (Chairman)

Michael & Me

Our early days together growing up in Wroxall
When mum and dad were married in 1932
they longed to start a family but in mum, no baby grew.
For five long years they tried, but no baby came along so, mum said to dad one day, something must be wrong.

There must be a baby somewhere in need of care and love mum would pray for a miracle to the lord above.
They adopted a baby boy to love and call their own so that's how Michael became my brother and moved into our home.

But not many months had come and gone
Before I, a little sister came along.
So, the two of us grew up together and the closeness we shared went on forever.

We played together in the early years, and spent Saturdays on the farm.
Auntie Ash was always there, to keep us safe from harm.

We had fizzy lemonade to drink, and new laid eggs for tea.
It was a happy time for us, filled with love and security.

We'd run around in fields of clover, our imaginations running rife.
Back in those days when we were young, ours was a happy life.

At seventeen, you said goodbye and walked out of the door
you're off to join the Navy and make it your career
I hugged you and wished you well, although my heart shed a tear.
For we're born not far apart
My brother and my hero from the start.

In loving memory of my dear brother Michael Mills, who sadly passed away on 30th July 2025. Michael lived and grew up in Avenue Road Wroxall.

News from the Isle of Wight Donkey Sanctuary

A perfect summer for our donkeys

This very dry weather has made summer 2025 just right for our donkeys! On the rare occasions we've had a shower, they've headed straight into their shelter and only reappearing once the last raindrops have gone!

It's been a busy season here at the sanctuary, with visitors making the most of our free entry and free parking to meet the donkeys and enjoy our beautiful countryside.

Meet Jimmy - our newest resident

Our newest arrival, Jimmy joined us at the end of June and has settled in really well. Jimmy previously lived at Tilgate Zoo on the mainland, but after his brother sadly passed away, he found himself without any donkey friends.

After a quarantine period, he's now happily living in our Fresh Air Donkeys herd, as he has asthma and benefits from being outdoors alongside his medication. Do pop by and say hello to him!

Isle of Wight Donkey Sanctuary Dog Show – Sunday 21 September, 1 to 4pm

Bring your four-legged friends and join in our fun dog show, hosted by the Wight Agility Group. With classes ranging from Best Pedigree to Most Like the Owner, there's something for everyone.

Entry is £3 per class, £5 for two or £10 for four payable on the day. We'll also have live music in the courtyard and gin tasting with the Isle of Wight Gin Company. Make a day of it - we'd love to see you!

Wightrider – Saturday 11 and Sunday 12 October

We're delighted to be a terminus for Wightrider once again. Bus riders can take advantage of our free all-day parking, enjoy a visit to the sanctuary and then hop aboard the vintage buses for a nostalgic ride.

Find out more at: www.wightrider.co.uk

Community visits

We love being part of our local community. If you're part of a community group and would like to arrange a visit, please get in touch—we'd be delighted to welcome you.

Contact: tracy.hawkes@iowdonkeysanctuary.org or call 852963 for a chat.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

The committee meet once a month and work together to see how we can both raise funds to repair and update the hall as well as provide some fun for the village.

The View Café

Continues to be a roaring success with support from all corners of the village. Adam and Aviv are now offering a hot panini option to their ever-expanding local café business. The Bubble Teas are very popular and have you tried their beetroot latte yet? The View café is being run out of the Worsley Lounge up at the hall. Local couple Aviv and Adam hire the venue from Thursday to Sunday every week and open 8:30am till 4pm for customers. They offer a huge range of drinks including freshly ground coffees of all varieties, hot chocolates, teas and more. Alongside that they also offer a lovely selection of freshly baked and delicious cakes. Spot and protect yourself from scams

It can be hard to tell if something is a scam - that's why they work. Fraudsters are cunning and adapt quickly to convince you into parting with your money.

Ask yourself the following questions. If you answer yes to any of them, there's a good chance it's a scam

Have you been contacted out of the blue?

Cold calls or unexpected emails or messages should raise suspicion, especially if you're asked to give personal or payment details. It's very unusual for legitimate organisations to contact you and ask for sensitive information if you're not expecting them to. If you're not 100% convinced about the identity of the caller, hang up and contact the company directly.

Have you been asked to share personal details?

Never share your personal details with anyone if you can't confirm they are who they say they are. Scammers will often try and get valuable personal data from you, and they can use this to steal your money, or even to steal your identity. You should also be wary of anyone who asks you to pay in an unusual way, such as through Western Union or by using Cryptocurrency.

Are the contact details vague?

Scam websites often have vague contact details. Remember that legitimate companies will have a place of business, phone number or email address to contact them on. Sometimes scammers also use premium rate numbers (starting '09') to squeeze every penny they can out of you.

Are you being asked to keep it secret?

It's important you can discuss any agreements with your friends, family or advisors as outside perspectives can provide valuable voices of reason. Fraudsters use grooming techniques including isolating you so that you don't tell anyone about the situation you're in and fall deeper into the scam. Asking you to keep quiet is a way to keep you away from the advice and support you need in making a decision.

Is the offer too good to be true?

Scams will often promise high returns for very little financial commitment. They may even say that a deal is too good to miss. Use your common sense, if a deal seems too good to be true, it inevitably is.

Are you being pressured to make a decision?

Fraudsters often try to hurry your decision making. Don't let anyone make you feel under pressure - it's OK to take a break and think things through if you're not sure. It's also a common technique for scammers to use a countdown timer on scam websites to pile on further pressure. Genuine companies should always give you time and space to make an informed decision - anyone who tries to rush you should not be trusted.

Are there spelling and grammar mistakes?

Emails or messages littered with spelling and grammar mistakes are a scam giveaway. Legitimate organisations will rarely, if ever, make spelling or grammatical mistakes in their emails to you because they've been put together by professionals and checked before they're sent.
